

Mini-session "Being an ethical politician"
Dorian Ducka, Albania

Dorian Ducka shared his experiences as a young man being very active in politics, nationally and internationally, and encouraged all the young participants at this particular mini-session to start being active and take part in, influence and take responsibility for Europe's future.